Encore Careers

How to Make a Living & a Difference in the Second Half of Life

Wondering what's next in your life? Thinking about shifting to a new career? Join the Harvey A. Friedman Center for Aging & The OASIS Institute for an event that explores encore careers— second acts for the greater good.

Thursday, March 7, 2013

The Center of Clayton, 50 Gay Ave, 63105

Check-in: 6:00pm Program: 6:30pm

Featuring Marci Alboher, author of The Encore Career Handbook, and St. Louis area professionals who are transitioning into encore careers.

Networking and Book Signing: 8:00pm

Event is free and open to the public.

For more details and to register: publichealth.wustl.edu/aging

Questions? Contact CenterforAging@wustl.edu or 314.747.9234.

About the Author

Marci Alboher, is vice president of Encore.org, the leading nonprofit organization making it easier for millions of people to pursue second acts for the greater good. A former New York Times career columnist, she is one of the nation's top experts on career issues and workplace trends. Her new book, The Encore Career Handbook, is a comprehensive, nuts-and-bolts guide, filled with inspiring stories and extensive FAQ sections. This book is everything you need to help you strike a balance between doing good and doing well— in a way that will sustain you through a new stage of life.

Copies of The Encore Career Handbook: How to Make a Living and a Difference in the Second Half of Life will be available for purchase at the event.

